

The Frank Sinatra Celebrity Invitational is dedicated to the memory and music of Frank Sinatra and benefits the Barbara Sinatra Children's Center at Eisenhower Medical Center. The Frank Sinatra Celebrity Invitational enjoys a rich history as one of the marquee golf and fundraising events in the Palm Springs, California desert. Each year, celebrities, amateur contestants, loyal sponsors and enthusiastic spectators from all over the country look forward to returning to this unique "celebrity friendly" event.

Known as "Frank's little party in the desert," Barbara and Frank Sinatra founded the Frank Sinatra Celebrity Invitational in 1988 to raise funds for the Barbara Sinatra Children's Center which opened in 1986. Through their efforts, and those of supporters throughout the world, the Frank Sinatra Celebrity Invitational is now one of the most successful events of its kind.

The mission of the Barbara Sinatra Children's Center is to provide counseling for victims of physical, sexual and emotional abuse and to focus on prevention, community education and breaking the generational cycle of abuse. Barbara Sinatra is quick to thank supporters of the Frank Sinatra Celebrity Invitational, and she is proud to say, "The children who come to us for help continue to receive the therapy they need and deserve; no child is turned away due to a family's inability to pay."

The Frank Sinatra Celebrity Invitational is a five (5) player team gross and net scramble golf tournament held at Indian Wells Country Club in Indian Wells, California. The Renaissance Esmeralda Resort and Spa, also in Indian Wells, is the tournament's hotel and venue for three nights of parties and a spectacular luncheon and fashion show.

One (1) celebrity and four (4) amateur contestants encompass a team. The team of four (4) amateur players remains together for two (2) consecutive days, playing the Classic Course one day and the Cove Course one day. The celebrity contestant changes teams for the second day. Current USGA handicaps are verified and applied to all contestants.
