

CHAZZ PALMINTERI (Playwright/Performer) Chazz Palminteri has appeared twice on Broadway in A Bronx Tale. Most recently his sold-out engagement parallels his Broadway debut in 1989 in A Bronx Tale. He wrote and originally performed the show in Los Angeles and then off-Broadway at Playhouse 91. He went on to write the screenplay and co-star in the screen adaptation of A Bronx Tale alongside Robert De Niro, who also made his directorial debut with the film. He is now on national tour with his one man show, A Bronx Tale. Chazz has more than 50 movies to his credit including The Usual Suspects, Bullets Over Broadway (Academy Award nomination), Analyze This, Hurlyburly, Mulholland Falls, Faithful (screenplay also written by Chazz Palminteri), Poolhall Junkies, The Perez Family, Jade, Diabolique, Down to Earth and A Guide to Recognizing Your Saints. Recent films include Mighty Fine starring Andie MacDowell, Oogielove – The Big Balloon Adventure (a children's film), Yonkers Joe, Jolene and The Dukes. He has also directed the HBO series "Oz" (episode, "Unnatural Disasters"), Showtime's "Women vs. Men" and the feature film Noel, starring Susan Sarandon, Penelope Cruz, Robin Williams and Paul Walker. He was last seen on the New York stage in the play The Resistible Rise of Arturo Ui starring with Al Pacino, John Goodman, Steve Buscemi and Billy Crudup. Chazz is a member of the Actors Studio in NYC.