

Paolo Scaroni

Paolo Scaroni is Deputy Chairman Rothschild & Co, Chairman Giuliani S.p.A and Chairman AC Milan.

Mastering four languages and with a Degree in Economics earned at the L. Bocconi University of Milan, Italy (69), Paolo Scaroni began his career with Chevron. After obtaining an MBA at Columbia University, New York (72), he worked as an associate for McKinsey & Co. (72-73).

Paolo Scaroni joined Saint Gobain in 1973, and during his time with the company held a number of positions in various countries.

In 1983 he became Director of the Saint Gobain Flat Glass Division based in Paris and assumed worldwide responsibility for all the activities of the company's Flat Glass Division, encompassing the roles of President and General Manager Saint Gobain Vitrage, France.

He left Saint Gobain on 1985 to become Executive Vice President of Techint. During his time in this post (85-96), he also held the offices of Executive Vice President of Falck S.p.A. (of which Techint was a major shareholder) from 1986 to 1989, and of Managing Director of SIV S.p.A. (when SIV was a joint-venture between Techint and Pilkington) from 1993 to 1995.

He joined Pilkington in November 1996 as President Automotive Products Worldwide. He was appointed CEO in May 1997 and held the post until May 2002. Pilkington was at that time the largest flat glass producer in the world.

From May 2002 to May 2005 he was Chief Executive Officer of Enel, one of the largest utility in the world.

From May 2005 to May 2014 he has been Chief Executive Officer of eni, one of the most important integrated oil companies in the world.

From 2000 to 2014 he held a member of non-executive position including: Deputy Chairman and SID at the London Stock Exchange Group PLC as well as Chairman of Alliance Unichem PLC. Paolo has also been a member of the board of Generali Assicurazioni, ABN AMRO NV, Bae System PLC and Alstom SA

In June 2013 he was made a Commandeur of the Legion of Honor.