

Beth T. Mazzeo is a special advisor and the former Chief Administrative Officer of Bloomberg LP. As Chief Administrative Officer, Mazzeo had responsibility for the company's global support team across 170+ offices, more than 40,000 client firms and over 20,000 employees. Her department of more than 1,700 people was responsible for the operation of Bloomberg's global real estate and facilities portfolio, supply chain, security, travel and expense along with technical customer and employee support and infrastructure. Mazzeo joined Bloomberg in 1986 and has since held roles across Bloomberg's trading systems and data teams before serving as Chief Administrative Officer. Prior to Bloomberg, she worked for the financial services firm Integrated Resources.

Mazzeo received her Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the Villanova School of Business (VSB) in 1981. She has been a member of Villanova's Board of Trustees since 2013 and served as its Vice Chair for the last two years. Mazzeo is also a former member of the Dean's Advisory Council at VSB. A mother of three (Alexandra '13, Christina and Lawrence Jr. '16), she resides in Skillman, N.J., with her husband, Lawrence, a 1983 graduate of Villanova.