

MARK MANJARDI

Mark Manjardi was born and raised just outside of Philadelphia, PA. He takes great pride in being a 4th generation 100% Italian American and nothing means more to him than family and the Italian traditions he was taught growing up. After graduating highschool, he did what no other family member had done before: leave the neighborhood. Mark traveled three thousand miles across the country to attend film school at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles, CA. After college, Mark worked as an agent's assistant in the Motion Picture Production Department at ICM Partners. An Oscar nominated client of the agency then hired Mark to come with him and be his Executive Assistant, which Mark did for six years. During that time, Mark also wrote many screenplays, one of which was produced and released on the Hallmark Channel. Always having dreams of being a host, Mark took his shot and auditioned for Game Show America - the top live production game show company in America. He won the job and has been hosting live game shows and events across the country ever since, hoping one day to transition onto the TV screen.